VOLUNTEER

A network of over 600 volunteers creates a community of care, friendship and support for frail older adults in Orange County. Volunteers play an essential role in nourishing the well-being of O.C. seniors and help keep them living connected lives in the community and homes they love.

VITAL SERVICES NOURISH THE LIVES OF OLDER ADULTS

Lonely older adults suffer from depression, are at more risk for cognitive decline, and are more likely to fall or suffer disease.

Being older means battling invisible barriers to being healthy, and too often, doing it alone. Many seniors struggle behind our neighborhood doors to get enough to eat, stay engaged, and find people to help when daily chores become challenging.

LUNCH CAFÉ

FOOD + FRIENDSHIP CLOSE TO HOME

Meals on Wheels OC provides nutritious lunches Monday through Friday to community centers in 19 cities throughout central and north Orange County. These neighborhood places invite active adults 60 years or older to eat out, socialize around a meal, meet people, and join in activities that the community offers.

A nutritious meal and friendship enhances physical and mental well-being and provides links to community support services. Meals are planned by a registered dietician to meet nutrition needs.
